

The Federal Highway Administration

Presents an

Online Information Session

for the 3rd Infantry Division Highway Corridor Study

Tuesday, May 17th from 12:00-1:00 pm
Tuesday, May 17th from 6:30-7:30 pm
Wednesday, May 18th from 10:00-11:00 am

Join us for one of the above sessions to learn about the 3rd Infantry Division Highway Corridor Study. Each event will cover the same information through a brief overview of the study process and key results:

- Why is FHWA studying the 3rd Infantry Division Highway?
- What tasks are involved in the study?
- Which routes are considered?
- How much would a new Interstate or highway cost?

Following the presentation, submit your questions so project team members can provide answers. Following the events, a summary of each meeting and frequently asked questions will be posted on our website at www.fhwa.dot.gov/planning/section_1927/. Visit our website for more information about the study and the upcoming Q&A sessions.

To join one of the free events, log on to www.joinwebinar.com a few minutes before a session is scheduled to start and enter the ID for the event you are interested in:

Tuesday lunch: 739903006

Tuesday evening: 868736998

Wednesday morning: 128482726

You can listen in through your computer's speakers or choose to call in through your telephone. Call-in numbers are provided as soon as you log into the online session.

3rd Infantry Division Highway Corridor Study

Stefan Natzke, FHWA Project Manager

3rdInfantry@dot.gov

www.fhwa.dot.gov/planning/section_1927/